LAUGH FORN AT STONY CREEK

Boat Belonging to E. B. Dawley Which Was Stolen From Sunnyside Located While Searching For Another.

After having practically abandoned hope of finding his launch, which was stolen from the Thames river at Sunnyside on the night of August 15, Everett B. Dawley of this city on Saturday received word that it was at Stony Creek, where it had been for a week and a half. It was discovered by Mr. Butson of Stonington, who was seeking another launch which had been stolen from Marlboro and on his way to Stony Creek he saw the Dawley boat, which he was acquainted with, as he had considered work on it. Mr. Butson informed Mr. Dawley, who directed him to again visit the boat and satisfy himself from the description of certain parts that it was the Dawley boat. This Mr. Butson did, and he is to take it to his shop, where he will probably dispose of it.

The boat had not been badly used, being practically in the same condition as when it was stolen, though the party had evidently had quite a time with the running of the engine, as he had been boarded and ransacked.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLING $600 FROM FORMER WIFE

Martin Berent Arrested Here Saturday and Taken to Danielson.

Martin Berent was arrested here on Saturday afternoon, charged with the embezzlement of $600 from his divorced wife, Lily Hurst of Clarks Mills, N. Y. He is locked up in the Danielson jail and will have a hearing this (Monday) morning. He has been wanted on this charge for many months. The Berents formerly lived near East Killingly. He is a German and his former wife English. Something over two years ago their home at East Killingly was destroyed by fire and the insurance of $600 was placed in the National bank in Danielson in the name of Mrs. Berent. Later domestic troubles developed and Mrs. Berent applied for and secured a divorce in the superior court for Windham county. After receiving the decree she went back to Clarks Mills, N. Y., and Berent went to Philadelphia. It appears that some time ago Berent wrote to her and suggested that she give him an order to transfer the money from the national bank to the savings bank of Danielson, that the account might be in her name. She gave him an order, and that he came to Danielson, drew the money from the bank, but failed to re-deposit it to her credit. In March of this year Attorney Bill attached the mortgage that Berent had on the property at East Killingly, which he had sold. All efforts to locate Berent since that time have failed until he wrote his former wife recently from Norwich, suggesting, it is said, that they come to some agreement and settlement of the matter. Her reply to this proposition was to send him to Norwich, general delivery. This clue as to his whereabouts was given local officers by the woman and arrangements were made last month with Acting Chief Linton to post a man in the postoffice in that city and watch for a man who would call for such mail. The guard was set on Wednesday night, but it was not until Saturday afternoon and about 3 o'clock that the wanted man appeared. He was arrested by the guard and taken to the police station, where he was arrested by Superintendent Ralph Devito.

Chief Murphy informed Constable Orest D. Sayles of Danielson, who came and took him to Danielson. Berent in forty years of age.

Local branches of the Connecticut Daughters of Scotia are choosing delegates to the national convention in Jersey City, September 20.

Little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Marland, followed the wedding ceremony.

TAFTVILLE MAENNERCHOR GOES TO BRIDGEPORT

One Hundred Members of Local Society Guests of Schwaebischer Maennerchor.

About 100 members of the Taftville Maennerchor left on Saturday for Bridgeport where they are for three days the guests of the Schwaebischer Maennerchor. Members of the latter society were guests of the Taftville club on August 12 and 13, at the dedication of their new hall. The following is taken from Saturday's Bridgeport Post:

That the grand picnic to be held on Monday (Labor day) by the Schwaebischer Maennerchor at their camp at French street, in honor of the visit of the Taftville Maennerchor will be almost the leading event of the week here, goes without saying. No pains or expense have been spared to make this so. Paul Scholz has arranged a program of athletic sports, and there will be dancing all day in the hall and refreshments of all kinds will be on sale. The general public is permitted to attend this, and it is anticipated that it will be well patronized.

The members of the Taftville Maennerchor will be met on their arrival at 3.30 this afternoon by a large reception committee composed of the leading members of the Schwaebischer Maennerchor and given a trolley ride, after which they will be given a supper at the hall followed by informal reception and dancing. Tomorrow there will be a sacred concert as the main feature of the day, with the picnic Monday as the culmination of their entertainment. The Ansonia Maennerchor will attend tomorrow in a body nearly 100 strong, and that gathering promises to be a large one.

Ponemah Wheel Club Dance.

A social dance was held Saturday evening in Parish hall at the Ponemah Wheel club and the large attendance included many from Norwich, Baltic and Willimantic. Music for the sixteen numbers was rendered by the club orchestra. The occasion was a delightful one for all those present. The committee in charge of the affair was composed of George Sawlow, George Gundeman, Thomas Hoyle, Martin Waldren and James Mulholland.

Thomas H. Delaney Dislocated Wrist. Thomas H. Delaney of Greenville had his wrist dislocated about six o'clock Saturday afternoon when he slipped and fell while raising a load in the basement of the No. 1 mill of the Ponemah company. Mr. Delaney was working on the lighting system. He is employed as watchman.

seven times, passing round it seven times, whilst the chanters sing or recite the psalm "Miserere." He then sprinkles the walls in the interior of the church three times, first the lower part, then on a level with his face and lastly the upper part, after which he sprinkles the door of the church in the form of a cross, passing from the altar to the door and from the Gospel to the Epistle side in the middle of the church. Having returned to the middle of the church, he sprinkles with one swing of the censer the floor before him, behind him, at his left, and at his right.

THE SIN OF HAVING OUR OWN WAY.

God's Commands Should Be Interpreted by His Own Words and Not What We Prefer.

A large number attended services at the gospel tent on McKimley avenue Sunday evening. Evangelist Andrews discoursed earnestly on the subject "The Sin of Having Our Own Way." The text from the book of Proverbs was as follows: There is a way that seemeth right to a man, but the end thereof shall be the ways of death.

Does this scripture say: It makes no difference what one believes if he is sincere? The evangelist said exactly so. I think very many are inclined to reason away the divine mandate by choosing for themselves, instead of convenience, public opinion, etc., and persuading their conscience that it is a small matter with the great Jehovah to let them do as they please.

That this principle is the crucial point—just the trouble with fallen humanity—whether we will give up our own way and fully accept the divine way. To this end, the story may be so plain that a wayfaring man need not err therein, the Bible contains upon this subject the most exact precept, here a little and there a little.

Now does this mean I must turn from my way and entirely accept the word of God? That is just what conversion means, a turning about, a turning away from our own liking and toward heaven's ways instead of our own.

Now when a parent says to the child: "If you do that way again, I will punish you," the child repeats the act, and the parent says: "If you do that way again I'll punish you sure." What is the result? The child does for the parent. And I'll tell you, if parents would do just as they promise there would be more people today obedient to God.

Children allowed to have their own way in the home will find it easy and pleasant to do so in the church and the word of the Lord. The longer I live the more I am convinced that here is where the real work of the Christian is done. The enemy of souls is the devil, and he is the enemy of the church.

For many are called, but few are chosen. An impressive object lesson is given in I Kings 12, to illustrate how God is to be taken with reference to what He says. The evangelist told the story of the young prophet who was sent by God but failed to do as told and lost his life.

How many are stumbling at the word and asking to be excused. "Not every one that saith to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom, but he that doeth the will of my father in heaven."

From him in respect for Labor day the subject is Capital and Labor—what the Bible says on many things pertaining to this issue. Tuesday night, 8 o'clock, free lecture. From Manager to Throne; Wednesday night, Why So Many Christians are Not Saved; Thursday night, Church Socials and Amusements for Raising Money; Friday night, Why I Am a Seventh-day Adventist; Sunday night, closing service, subject, The Marriage Supper of the Lamb.
